1. I am doing a new thing in you, the surrendered many, not few, who come now to my table, being it, in the surrendered, surrendered table gatherers, not; but those who come to, being ingested not, any longer, by those who not me want them, numbing their minds/name and naming them not me/mine. I love you all.
2. Can you see what I am saying/doing now through the surrendered ones, surrendered one? I love you, love you, love you more than ever.
3. Can that be, ever'd one so lovely as I am/thou art, us being the same one, not one not any longer but he who ones one'd not but releasing my power thou art, in ways not seen/fashioned by another. I love you I am. I am love. I love you all.
4. See me, this short word, not magnanimous not but glowing my radiance in the being, lifting the not few now, in ways not seen before.
5. Love me, be me, all who will, come into my presence seeing me/the king of kings not thought, as thought, as before now, now come and see who you are, the king, your court, courted not, me bowing before you respecting your wishes not, your surrender/unsurrender and therefore unsundering not to you, allowing you to become your surrender.
6. Therefore see the one I am and love me/my word more and that you are my word brought forth, all of you, in surrender of one/the one I am, that all are. I surrender. Do you?
7. Trust me, trust me not? You choose, your bearing, course determining, the outcome now, of your earth; not mine, or mine.
8. Rise to the occasion not but one suffering not, see elementsville not; the big picture: me! you! us! We are the one. There is only one/one'sville. Surrenderedville you lead. The lead in no more. I love you all. Me thanks you.
9. I am the one, all are/you are. I love you. Me. Father. One. One of many I am many of one, being one, the one I am, I am. You are. I love you.
